Retirement of Sunnyside Village Medical Director is the end of an era

SARASOTA, Fla (December 12, 2023) – A remarkable era is ending at Sunnyside Village. After serving the community for nearly 40 years, Dr. Rickey Wiseman is retiring as the Medical Director for Sunnyside Health & Rehabilitation Center.

Dr. Wiseman joined the Sunnyside community in the 1980s and has since cared for hundreds of residents, mentored countless nurses and caregivers, and served on a multitude of committees supporting and helping guide the community's Christian Mission.

Dr. Wiseman has been a fixture in the community for so much of its existence that his decision to retire brings to a close a momentous period in which he led by the example of his dedication to serving our residents, community, and staff.

"It has been a great honor to learn from such a humble, intelligent, and dedicated individual," says Alexandra Maliwacki, Director of Sunnyside Health & Rehabilitation Center. "All of us feel very privileged to have had the opportunity to serve with Dr. Wiseman and are grateful to him for his many contributions."

On behalf of Sunnyside Village, we would like to congratulate and thank Dr. Wiseman and his supportive family for his unwavering commitment and decades of superb service to Sunnyside.
